

Shellie Lewis

Dual Background in fine art and digital technology

4022 W. Washington Street,
South Bend, IN 46619
(773) 456-7890
artg33k74@gmail.com

EXPERIENCE

The Trevor Project, Digital Team — Crisis Counselor

JANUARY 2023 - PRESENT

Crisis counseling and suicide hotline intervention for LGBTQIA+ teens and youth.

Pumping Station: One, Chicago — Area Host

2012 - 2022

Volunteer instructor and studio manager for physical media, fiber arts, and digital media equipment, supplies and budget.

Northbrook Park District, Northbrook, IL — Various

SEPTEMBER 2016 - SEPTEMBER 2018

Art instruction for children at the Leisure Center, scorekeeper and events host for the adult league hockey and figure skating programs at the Sports Center, and set up for site rentals at the Village Green center.

The Ancona School, Chicago — Art Activity Leader

SEPTEMBER 2014 - SEPTEMBER 2015

Create lesson plans and devise projects for Grades 1st – 6th, lead instruction groups, budget management, curricula development for the after school program, program documentation and website presentation and field trip chaperone.

EDUCATION

DePaul University, Chicago — Master of Science in Human-Computer Interaction

2021

Research design, report writing, heuristic & accessibility analysis, responsive design, and data analysis.

Columbia College, Chicago — Bachelor of Arts in Art + Design

2010

Graduated summa cum laude, 4.0 GPA.

SKILLS

Fine art drawing and painting.

Printmaking, book binding, and fiber arts.

Photography and videography.

Website design.

AWARDS

Diversity Scholar, scholarship award from Columbia College, 2009.

WNBA Sky, photography intern, 2014.

Vincentian Endowment Award, grant received to fund design and research from DePaul University for research and design creating a digital solution to play live music that would meet the needs of a musician with high level quadriplegic paralysis, 2019.

PROJECT

Graphic design, competitor research, UX/UI research and design for Cheff.com technology startup launched with DePaul MBA students, 2018.